15 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
16 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
17

18 ORALEE ANDERSON-FRANCOIS,) No. C08-00724 WHA
19 Plaintiff,) [PROPOSED]
20 v.) ORDER GRANTING COUNTY OF SONOMA, et al.,) DEFENDANTS COUNTY OF 22 Defendants.) SONOMA AND JERRY
23) NEWMAN'S MOTION TO
24) COMPEL PLAINTIFF'S MENTAL
25) EXAMINATION
26) Date:
27) Time:
28) Place: Courtroom 9

1 The Court has reviewed and considered the Motion to Compel Plaintiff's
 2 Mental Examination filed on November 3, 2008, by Defendants County of Sonoma and
 3 Jerry Newman (the "County Defendants") and all accompanying papers, any
 4 Opposition, any Reply, and any other papers filed in connection with the Motion, and
 5 has heard the arguments of counsel.

6 The Court concludes that Plaintiff's emotional state is "in controversy"
 7 within the meaning of Rule (a)(1) and that good cause exists for the requested mental
 8 examination.

9 THEREFORE,

10 IT IS ORDERED that the County Defendants' Motion is GRANTED.

11 Plaintiff shall present herself for a mental examination with Bernard S. Rappaport, M.D.,
 12 at his office located at 3 Altarinda Road, Suite 207, Orinda, California 94563, on 13 December 18, 2008, at 9:00 a.m.

14 The examination will consist of the following:

15 a) A history, which will encompass questions regarding
 16 Plaintiff's family history, education history, social history, past medical history, past
 17 mental health history, and treatment history, and the incident being litigated and 18 subsequent treatment, as well as a mental status examination; and

19 b) Administration of three psychological tests: the Minnesota
 20 Multiphasic Personality Inventory (MMPI-2), the Millon Clinical Multiaxial Inventory
 21 (MCMI-III), and the Rotter Incomplete Sentences Blank.

22 Plaintiff shall not have anyone in the examination room with her during the 23 examination because that would compromise the clinical setting.

25 Dated: November 10, 2008.
